One of the most important suppliers we chose is the KEE event because there is nothing truly comparable to being able to enjoy your own wedding day without stress. Kaitlin has been there for every step of the way, from recommending suppliers to creating the perfect itinerary day to making sure we get the day running as we envisioned. Caitlyn is so professional and knowledgeable, I can't recommend her enough! 03/30/2020 It sent in response to the KEE event: Thank you so much for your kind words! We planned, organized and executed your special day! Cheer up you and Ben! Elori Ulka - April 04, 2020 Marriage: Responsiveness: Value: Flexibility: Professionalism: Flexible and Friendly Wedding Planner/Coordinator. Even before I got engaged, I knew the wedding planner/coordinator could help me on my big day. I like making lists and am usually the one planning events for others gun type A people. We decided to hire a wedding coordinator for the day because we knew we couldn't do everything on our wedding day. It was important to me that someone would be available to attend on the same day for any issues, help set up and tear down and also have someone who can guide me through this process as I've never planned a wedding before. Kaitlin and it was just a KEE event we needed. I had almost all the plans, I just needed someone to be there for the last minute thing with a finishing touch. Caitlyn had great ideas and suggestions. Throughout every meeting, she was able to create a timeline sent to all suppliers to keep all of them on the same page. Even when we had to reschedule our May wedding due to Covid, she checked in on me and even delivered flowers and dog treats to my house on the week of my original wedding date. She was always available by text or email and was really just a blessing for our wedding day. I've heard a lot of talk from how Caitlyn and her team worked here, there, and everywhere in the days after our wedding - from helping fix the groom's ripped pants, to keeping the flower girl attentive and focused - she was just amazed. I would highly recommend it is a KEE event for your wedding or other event, it has peace of mind knowing that the experts are behind the scenes to make sure everything runs smoothly. Response to KEE event sent on November 23, 2020: Thank you so much for the review and willing to help! You have an amazing group of friends and family! And that's my first 'groom lip pants' But thank God for the safety pin, congratulations again and thank you for helping me do away with your special day! Neely - Feb 23, 2019 Marriage: Responsiveness: Value: Flexibility: Professionalism: One of the best decisions we have made in our time! My husband and I can't thank or recommend Caitlyn enough! Her genuine interest and kindness towards her clients is evident at every step. We got married in August 2020 - it was an anxious and stressful time. Caitlyn was incredibly poised, and we were always honest straight opinions, but one who could be free from judgment. We couldn't go through this process without her. Very communicative and organized, she gave us the freedom to go and enjoy the process. On the big day, Caitlyn was our wedding coordinator as well as a member of our friends/family. Answer for the KEE event on November 05, 2020: Thank you Neely! It was my pleasure, we couldn't ask for a more beautiful August wedding day and a large group of vendors! I can't wait to celebrate with you and others again next year for reception round 2! It's a KEE event FAQ do you offer an hourly rate? What is the hourly rate? What wedding events do you offer? What wedding planning services do you offer? What wedding did you plan? Creative work, innovation and invention. The forum also promotes interaction between practitioners in the fields of art, science and technology. The forum has state-level support, and its backer is Deputy Prime Minister Teo Chee Hean. Today we would like to introduce Sarah Kee.Sarah, let's start with your story. We want to hear how you started and how the journey has been so far. Letting go was one of the best things that ever happened to me. I had been working for a large retailer in the company's office for over two years when a new CEO was acquired. With it came change and restructuring. I was safe during the first wave, but in the second round, with more than 600 colleagues, I let myself go at the same time. It didn't take me long to find another job in the corporate world, but I had anxiety and I didn't think it would be a better time to start my own business. The plan was always what I did, all through high school, going to college and even businesses, on top of my usual work. It wasn't something I was engrossed in, but I think it's seemingly there. I knew it well and it seemed natural to jump. At first it turned out to be the push I needed to make the leap to what seemed like a failure at my end. It has quite a ride, but I have never regretted it for a while! But we've talked to enough people to know that it's not always easy – as we're always bombarded by how big it is to pursue your passion. Overall, will you say things were easy for you? There are good people behind successful companies, and one of the previous challenges was finding the right team members to help run the event. It took a while, but I could not be more excited about Keystone's team. Planners and assistants are both truly warm and intelligent people, with a heart for hospitality and the ability to find solutions to the obstacles that arise. We would like to hear more about your business. We don't just focus on detail and logistics, we pride our work on design. Many customers ask for help at the end of it, and we're always excited to have a blueprint that speaks to their aesthetics. By streamlining the process and doing most of the work online, we try to make life easier for everyone involved. Customers always appreciate everything we can to save time. I'm very proud of how each event we do gets better every time. Our team works very hard to ensure that what our customers want comes to life, and it's always the best feeling when that vision is fulfilled. We take the time to review each event and apply the lessons learned in the future. I firmly believe that being self-respecting is in trouble and should never stop learning. Therefore, I am always looking for opportunities to continue my education and knowledge. What does it look like growing up? I've always been curious and loved reading. Drawings and paintings were a big concern. Studying abroad was a passion and I used it both in high school (Tokyo) and university (Beijing). My family moved to Asia when I was 17, and I stayed in the U.S. to attend college (Texas A&M; A, M, whoop!) I've lived alone ever since, so I thought I was pretty independent!
